

Message from Our President

At long last the spring season has arrived, marking the time when high school seniors make their final college decisions. At WSF, our Scholarship Committee is now likewise finalizing their decisions, matching our available scholarship award dollars with recipients. Over the year, we have been amazed by the generosity of our community as evidenced most significantly by the establishment of two new scholarships and by the four Boston Marathon runners who together raised over $25,000 for WSF scholarships! But our work continues. The need for financial aid grows unabated, even in a town like Wellesley. I hope you enjoy learning about our mission and that you continue to lend your support to WSF.

Beverly H. Donovan

Best wishes,

Marathon Runners Give it Their All for Wellesley Scholarship Foundation

2017 WSF Marathon Team: Rafael Gomez, Karen Keenan, Karen Haddock and Bill Pedersen

Congratulations and many thanks to the 2017 WSF Marathon Team, who completed the notoriously grueling Boston Marathon, raising over $25,000 for WSF scholarships! Their incredible efforts will directly benefit college-bound kids in our community, bringing them much-needed tuition assistance and thereby the chance to get an education.

New METCO Scholarship

WSF and the Friends of Wellesley METCO, Inc (FWMI) proudly announce that they have entered into a partnership that will provide need-based college scholarships to Wellesley High School seniors who have been part of the Wellesley METCO program.

Money for the scholarships has been generated by a group of FWMI supporters in celebration of Wellesley's 50 year involvement in the METCO program. WSF, which for 65 years has provided college scholarships to Wellesley residents and has served as a clearinghouse for many other Wellesley civic groups that fund need-based college scholarships, will enthusiastically undertake administration of this new FWMI scholarship.

"We are thrilled and inspired by the generosity of the donors who have established this scholarship fund," said FWMI president Betsy Komjathy. "We are so grateful to WSF for their administrative guidance in establishing (it)."

Eligible applicants for the FWMI scholarship are Wellesley High School seniors in the METCO program who have been admitted to and plan to attend an accredited college or

WSF and Turkey Trot Join Forces

WSF was thrilled to have been selected by the Wellesley Turkey Trot Foundation, Inc. as the recipient of a very generous grant. A new $5,000 community award will be donated by the Turkey Trot Foundation and administered by WSF. To be awarded to one or two students, it will be available to all of Wellesley's college-bound students, both resident and METCO.

"Supporting education is one of the core values of our mission," says Carol Chaoui, board president of Turkey Trot Foundation, Inc. "To make it possible for deserving Wellesley High School students to attend college is the very best investment for our funds and our future."

WSF board president Beverly Donovan couldn't agree more. "By choosing to partner with WSF, the Turkey Trot Foundation is acknowledging the need that exists in our community," says Donovan. "We couldn't do what we do without the support of such committed organizations, and we are so grateful to Carol Chaoui and her indefatigable drive to give back."

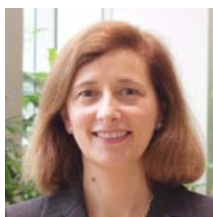

Wellesley Scholarship Foundation Board of Trustees 2016–2017

President: Beverly Donovan

Board of Trustees: Grace Berestecki, Brian Boyce, Ann Bullion, Jamie Chisum, Pam Dippel Choney, Peter Cory, Laura Davidson, Susan Dee, Judi Donnelly, Susan Doran, Linda Grape, Peter Grape, Ann Marie Gross, Dan Gross, Laura Hockett, KC Kato, David Lussier, Anne Melvin, Maggie Mulqueen, Sarah Pedersen, Nora Tracy Phillips, Ilissa Povich, Ann Rappaport, Kathy Skelly, Tom Warren, Liz Weaver, Mariann Youniss

Advisory Board: Sara Frost Azzam, Katherine Babson, Barbara Bloom, Barbara Fay, Sandy Goldstein, Jackie Hatch, Terry Hluchyj, Christine Kehoe, Bob Lakin, Tony Parker, Lynda Sperry, Helen Stewart, Connie Walkingshaw, Karen Wolfson

Highlight: Pam Dippel Choney Long Time WSF Volunteer

Pam has served on WSF's Investment Committee for 15 years, with 13 of them as committee chair. As she steps down, we asked her to reflect on her years as a volunteer.

How did you first get involved with WSF? I learned through a neighbor that WSF was looking for people to serve on its all-volunteer board. While I had a busy professional life, I was looking for a manageable way to get involved in a town-based activity, and WSF fit well with my interest in education as well as my career focus on asset management.

What has been the best part of volunteering with WSF? It has been rewarding for me in many ways. Most importantly, it has allowed me to donate time (as well as money) to the critical goal of improving both affordability and access to higher education for young people. Moreover, I've been able to see my efforts have impact in my immediate community, while also getting to know and work with a talented, thoughtful, dedicated and fun group of fellow citizens/neighbors.

What have you learned? While I brought a base of professional knowledge to the Investment Committee role, I've also learned so much through the opportunity to act in a fiduciary role, working with a small team to help oversee an endowment that was started over 50 years ago and is intended to be managed in perpetuity. It has been challenging at times and always interesting, plus I've enjoyed my committee-mates.

What role do you believe WSF plays in our community? WSF was founded over 65 years ago in the spirit of community, and it remains tangible evidence of the power of neighbors to help neighbors, and of the members of one generation to support the members of subsequent generations. Our mission can be viewed through a broader lens as well: Wellesley's graduates go out into the wider world and have the opportunity for influence and impact well beyond the borders of our town, and, in a small but important way, we help that to happen.

For someone else who might be considering volunteering, what would you tell them about WSF? If you are interested in the mission of education, then the "work" of volunteering with WSF comes naturally and, frankly, is not hard. With a good-sized group of Trustees, we're able to share the responsibilities of carrying on this great legacy, and have fun doing it. And there's always room for one more, no matter what your interest: marketing, development, accounting/audit, investment, communications. It's about helping to gather resources from town residents and others to support the needs and goals of our fellow residents. And the smiles on the students' faces – and those of their parents – as they receive their awards at our annual ceremony is a great reward in and of itself.

Feature: Lauren Madden Scholarship Recipient

Lauren Madden graduated from Lasell College in 2015 with a BS in Psychology. She currently lives in the Boston area.

When I walked across the stage [to receive my diploma], the significance became much more than just my success as a Bachelor's of Science graduate. As a first-time college student within my family, I represented not only my family and my community, but most importantly the advocates who helped me through the entire process.

Many students think about whom they're going to meet and how their classes will be, but I was worrying about whether I would be able to finance my education. My guidance counselor at Wellesley High School suggested that I look into town-based funds. Advocates from the Wellesley Scholarship Foundation personally reached out to me, providing step-by-step assistance. I did not just receive a scholarship but gained financial knowledge that prepared me for the future. I also developed networks of honest, selfless and hard working people that support equal education.

With the support and generosity of the Wellesley Scholarship Foundation, today I am on a successful path, close to achieving my dream of becoming a school guidance counselor. I hope to become a figure within my community, just as the dedicated staff [at WSF was] for me.

Donations to and promotion of this organization are crucial to the lives of merit and need-based students. By supporting the Wellesley Scholarship Foundation, students will be able to conquer their dreams and represent our amazing community.

"Without your financial assistance, getting my bachelor's degree next May would not be possible."

"This award will be a great help in minimizing college debt, and I am really grateful for the support you have given me."

"I will be forever grateful to everyone who reviewed my application and believed in me."

"I hope that one day I will be able to set money aside to donate towards someone else's education."
